

Ryan O'Neil and Richie Ponce of the University of Great Falls (UGF) were named Frontier Conference men's soccer players of the week.

O'Neil, a 6-foot-2 senior forward from Arima, Trinidad, was named offensive player of the week. The Argos beat NCAA, Division II Montana State-Billings 4-1 for UGF's sixth straight victory. O'Neil scored two goals and four total points in the win. Also nominated: Nick Heffernan of Rocky Mountain College.

Ponce, a senior defender from Lakewood, Calif., was named defensive player of the week. Great Falls downed NCAA Division II Montana State Billings 4-1. Ponce's solid defensive play contributed significantly in the Argo win and six match win streak. Also nominated: Mikey Wall of Rocky Mountain College.