New Look Argo Softball Team to Make Home Debut This Weekend

Great Falls, MT – The University of Great Falls Women’s Softball Team will make its home debut this weekend at the 2011 Argo Invite. The 12 game 4 team fall ball softball tournament will pit the new-look Argos against regional competition such as, The University of Calgary, The University of Lethbridge, and Southern Alberta Institute of Technology (SAIT). Games begin at 11:00 am on Saturday and Sunday at the Multi-Sports Complex with the Argos on field 7 and the other guests on field 6.

The 2011-12 Argos softball team includes several players from Great Falls. Brittany Robbins, Nicole Banach, Chea Hollis, and freshman Jade Dyson and Alex Lowery will suit up for the Argo this weekend under new Head Coach Joey Egan.

Egan, the former Joey Ehnes, graduated from Great Falls High School. Egan set several records while playing for Montana State University – Billings. She was recently inducted into the Yellow jacket Hall of Fame. Egan took over the reins from her father, Gary Ehnes, after he was appointed as the new Argonauts Athletic Director. Egan added from Great Falls Bison Jordan Shine as her assistant coach and former CMR stand out Jo Bailey will also serve as an assistant coach.
