Argos Out Dual Carroll in a 5-Round Conference Brawl

Great Falls, MT – In what appeared to be a prize fight, two teams ready for battle stood toe to toe and gave each other the best they had. This night the Argos of Great Falls would come out on top.

“We executed what we discussed before the match” Coach Arunas Duda said. “We won the first two and had them (Carroll College) on the ropes. It was do or die for them and they stepped up their game.” We made a few errors in game 3 and 4 but still managed to keep it close. Beating such a good team and conference rival tonight was a real boost for our self esteem.” Duda added. Senior Taylor Lucero led the offensive attack for the Argos registering 20 kills on the evening. Carroll was led by Elli Graff who drove 14 spikes to the floor. The Argos were led defensively by Great Falls native Kyah Piva who pulled up 24 digs. Carroll’s defense was led by Maureen Frauenholtz who posted 17 digs.

The Argos are idle for 13 day and will host the UGF Alumni Game on Saturday the 8th at 3:00 pm in the McLaughlin Center.
