

Great Falls, MT – It was Military Appreciation Night with the Argos. The McLaughlin Center was loud as the NAIA 11th ranked, Battlin' Bears of, Rocky Mountain College came a callin' on the Argos. The Argos were feeling ready for a scrap, yet the Battlin' Bears earned their ranking by beating, then 7th ranked, Lewis-Clark State, Westminster, and Carroll College. The Bears came ready to defend their ranking and were also ready to fight. The Bears took the first game 25-13. That got the Argos dander up and they gave it all they had in game 2 winning 25-18. That was all the Argos would win as Rocky Mountain took game 3, 25-12, and game 4, 25-13. The Argos record falls to 17-5 overall and 2-4 in conference play. The Bears improve to 17-3 overall and 5-1 in conference play. Averi Pasma led the Argos with 12 kills and Kyah Piva had 25 digs. The Bears were led offensively by Sara Brunner who posted 13 kills and also led the team defensively with 22 digs. The Argos are home tomorrow night against Carroll College in another frontier conference match up.
