

Great Falls, MT – The University of Great Falls opened its 2011-2012 Men’s Basketball season with a 89-71 win over the University of Lethbridge. Argo, Leon Sutton led all scorers with 18 points including 4 -3’s. Sophomore Marcel Townes put 16 points on the board for the Argo. Great Falls native Reid Tramelli had 12 points. Junior Daryl Cooper scored 15 for the Pronghorns. “We started off very slow and committed too many turnovers.” Head Coach Steve Silsby said. “It did not take too long to find our rhythm and our play improved greatly. Overall, a good first game for us but we have some things to work on. It’s early in the season.” Silsby added.

The two teams will face off again on Saturday at 7:00 pm in the McLaughlin Center on the campus of the University of Great Falls.
