

ARGONAUTS DROP SECOND CONFERENCE ROAD GAME

BILLINGS – The University of Great Falls Women’s Basketball Team fell to the Battlin’ Bears of Rocky Mountain College 61-48.

“We played hard tonight!” Head Coach Bill Himmelberg said. The Argo were within seven-point at the break (29-22) but were out shout by the Lady Bears 32-26 in the second half. “We need to shoot it a little better moving forward.” Himmelberg said.

The Lady Argos were led by senior Kezia Ford who tallied 11 points and pulled down 5 rebounds. Only one other Argo, Sarah Sciascia tallied double figures scoring with 10 points.

The Argos shot .265 from the floor, .400 from beyond the arc, and a perfect 2 for 2 from the charity stripe. In the second half the Lady Argos improved to .355 from the floor. “We did great on the defensive end.” Himmelberg added.

The Lady Bears were led by Alli Blake and Austin Hanser who both tallied 13 points. The Argos shot 20-65 against the Bears 21-53 from the floor. The Bears saw the Free Throw line more often with 28 attempts against the Argos 7. In three-point shooting the bears were 4-13 while the Argos were 3-13.

“I was really happy with our effort.” Himmelberg concluded.

The Lady Argos take on the Lady Saints of Carroll College Saturday in Helena while the Lady Bears host the Skylights of MSU-Northern.
