

GREAT FALLS, Mont. – The University of Great Falls Men’s Basketball Team extended its winning streak to 3 today with a 72-60 win over South Dakota School of Mines and Technology. The Argos were led offensively by David Ubadigbo who drained 12 points in the game. The Hardrockers were led by Kyle Doerr who scored 13 on the evening.

Defensively the Hardrockers were led by Michael Dietz who brought down 6 rebounds. Naren Maynard had 7 rebounds for the Argos. The Argos are on the road November 4th to play Dickinson State University.

“I am excited to win this one.” Head Coach Steve Silsby said. “They are a very skilled team who proved very quick on the fast break and very solid off the glass.” Silsby added.
