

Phoenix Guard Selected as Conference Player of the Week

GREAT FALLS – The Frontier Conference announce late Monday night that University of Great Falls sophomore Marcel Towns was selected as this week's Frontier Conference Player of the Week.

Towns who hails from Phoenix, Arizona was selected for spearheading the Argonauts to a 69-68 upset victory over the tenth ranked Lights of MSU-Northern.

Towns contributed twenty-four points, pulled down eight rebounds in the fourth conference win for the Argos who fell to the same Lights in Havre on January 6th by a single point in the conference opener.

Towns joins junior Melvin Williams as Player of the Week winners.

The Argonauts are on the road in Butte and Dillon this weekend to battle Montana Tech and number 24 Montana-Western.
