Montana Grizzlies Men's Basketball Handles Argos

Missoula, MT – After upsetting the UCLA Bruins last weekend, the Montana Grizzlies were not going to let the Argos of the University of Great Falls do the same to them. After leading in the first few minutes of the game, the Argos could do little as the Griz took a 43-24 lead into half at Dahlberg Arena.

The Argos struggled to get back into the game in the second half making only 27% of their field goals. Lukas Hambsch led Great Falls with 11 points as the Argos fell 50-85. LJ Jones added eight points and five rebounds in the effort.

The game was considered an exhibition for the visiting Argos but counted as a regular season game for Montana (5-3).

Great Falls (4-6) is back in action at home next Saturday, December 18 when they face off with Concordia University out of Alberta, Canada. Game time is set for 7:30 pm.
