Lady Argos Run Out of Gas Against Warriors

Lewiston, Idaho – After taking the 11th ranked Griffins to overtime on Thursday, the Lady Argos could not bounce back and dropped their second of the weekend to #13 Lewis-Clark State College, 50-80. Great Falls struggled to get things rolling early as they shot only 19.4 percent from the field in the first half.

Although, the second half proved to be better making nine of 27, the Lady Argos finished the night at 25.9 percent shooting.

Freshman Sarah Sciascia was the only Argo to hit double digits as she had 14 points in the contest and pulled down five rebounds. Senior Aline Lino added seven and Kezia Ford, Marissa Skogen and Shorty Ramos combined for 18.

The Warriors made it tough for Great Falls to get close as they shot 50.8 percent from the field and made 4 of their 8 three-point attempts (50 percent). Conference scoring leader, Jasmine Stohr, led the Warriors with 18 points and four steals.

Great Falls will look to bounce back in the second part of conference play with a sweep of MSU-Northern. The Lady Argos, who beat Northern 85-73 in opening conference action, will travel to Havre, MT for a 6:00 pm start.
