Lady Argos Win Fourth Straight

Dillon, Mont. – The University of Great Falls women’s basketball team grabbed its fourth straight win and second straight conference win as they beat UM-Western 81-73. The Lady Argos trailed by two at half before out-scoring the Bulldogs 43-33 in the second.

Kezia Ford guided the Lady Argos with a 22 point performance. Four other Argos hit double digits including freshmen Chelsea Adams who put up 18 with a team-high four assists. Seniors Marissa Skogen and Jamie Young chipped in 12 and 11, respectively, while freshmen Sarah Sciascia led the bench with 10 points and a team-high nine boards.

Ford and Sciascia also combined for six steals. Great Falls saw 23 points come from the charity stripe while Western only got eight from the line.

“We played well tonight! This was another big conference win for us,” stated head coach Bill Himmelberg.

The Lady Argos are back in action tomorrow night as they travel to Butte to take on the Orediggers of Montana Tech. The game is set to start at 5:30 pm.
