Lady Argos Runaway with a 76-34 Win Over Walla Walla

Great Falls, MT – The Lady Argos allowed only 34 points and forced 32 turnovers in a 76-34 blowout of Walla Walla University on Sunday night. Great Falls, which moves 7-8 overall, was paced by Great Falls native Marissa Skogen who had 13 points, five steals, and 4 assists.

Great Falls shot 44% on the night and recorded points from all 11 players. Freshman Chelsea Adams put up 12 points for the Lady Argos while teammate Katie Wright added 11. Wright and fellow senior Jamie Young were solid on the glass, pulling down seven rebounds each.

Great Falls continued to dominate the boards as they out-rebounded the Wolves, 49-26. Kara Peterson and Shorty Ramos combined for 11 rebounds while Ramos also recorded four steals.

The Lady Argos will face off with Walla Walla again tomorrow at noon. Monday's game will be the last non-conference contest of the season for Great Falls.
