Lady Argos Win Second in Three Days

Walla Walla, WA – The Lady Argos won their second game in three days by defeating Walla Walla University, 65-39, tonight. The win improves the University of Great Falls women's basketball squad to 2-6 on the season.

In a game that saw 10 different Lady Argos getting playing time and nine contributing points, the team took a dominating first half lead of 36-18 behind a 36.7 field goal percentage. Both teams would shoot 31% from the field throughout the game but Great Falls ended with 19 more shots than the hosts.

Junior Kezia Ford (Augusta, MT) guided the Lady Argos with a team-high 13 points while senior Marissa Skogen (Great Falls, MT) chipped in 10 points and added four rebounds. Freshmen Sarah Sciascia (Roseville, CA) and Chelsea Adams (Lafayette, CO) each ended with eight points.

The Lady Argos dominated the boards out-rebounding Walla Walla, 48-30, as freshman Sigourney Thompson (Brisbane, Australia) grabbed a game-high 14 rebounds and senior Jamie Young (Great Falls, MT) pulled down nine.

Great Falls returns to the Treasure State to take on MSU-Northern in a non-conference match-up in Havre. The game is set for Thursday at 7 pm.
