

Criminal Justice Faculty

The University of Great Falls is a small, Catholic, liberal arts institution that is student-centered and mission-focused, preparing students for living and making a living. The mission supports the Sisters of Providence values of respect, compassion, justice, charity, excellence, and stewardship. The university is now accepting applications from qualified, experienced and enthusiastic professionals for coursework in this position and in support of the core curriculum. www.ugf.edu

POSITION: Full-time tenure-track teaching position in an undergraduate and graduate program

SALARY: Range DOQ: $32,000-$45,000

POSITION AVAILABLE: August 2012

CLOSING DATE: Open until filled

MAJOR RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Teach 12 credits per semester (fall and spring) in the Criminal Justice undergraduate and graduate program, with opportunities to teach in the summer, and integrated learning courses. On-line teaching may be required.
- Instruction primarily in Law Enforcement and Corrections concentrations
- Advise undergraduate students and supervise student research.
- Serve on faculty governance and university committees.
- Participate in program assessment and development.
- Provide service to the program, university, profession, and community.
- Expand knowledge and competencies in the discipline and in the learning/teaching process.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

- Applicants should possess a doctoral degree in Criminal Justice, Sociology/Criminology, or closely related field.
- Applicant must have demonstrated success in teaching a broad spectrum of undergraduate and graduate courses both face-to-face and online.
- Substantive work related experience in Law Enforcement and Corrections.
- Knowledge of current trends and programs in Criminal Justice.
- Understanding of and commitment to University of Great Falls' mission as a private Catholic liberal arts institution that prepares students for living and making a living.

Great Falls is an exciting community of over 55,000 people with various recreational opportunities for citizens and visitors alike. Settled in the heart of Montana, the Big Sky Country, Great Falls is surrounded by spectacular natural wonders and scenery. It is nestled between rich, productive farm land only miles away from the majestic Rocky Mountains to its west and Little Belt Mountains to the east. The City of Great Falls invites you to experience the best of both worlds: city excitement and mountain solitude. www.greatfallsmt.net

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

- Letter of Interest
- Resume/CV detailing professional experience/education
- Statement of Teaching Philosophy
- List of courses taught
- Names of three professional references

SEND TO: Rev. Jim Sikora, Academic Dean
facultyapplication@ugf.edu

AN AFFIRMATIVE ACTION/EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER COVERED BY THE MONTANA VETERANS' AND HANDICAPPED PERSONS'

EMPLOYMENT PREFERENCE ACT